Appendix A
Further to Questions 11 and 12

From May to September 2007, I continued my efforts on behalf of the province of Manitoba (Diane Gray, Deputy Minister, Canada-U.S. Relations) to promote acceptance of enhanced driver licenses as alternatives to passports under the Western Hemisphere Travel Initiative (WHTI) – slated to be implemented at the Canada- U.S. border sometime in late 2008. As part of these efforts I met with congressional staff to members from border states as well as Directors of the Washington, DC offices for the governors from Washington, New York, North Dakota, and Minnesota. I have also met with State and Homeland Security Department officials to promote both the acceptance of enhanced driver licenses as well as flexibility in implementation of the WHTI.

In June 2007 I attended the Western Governors' Association annual meeting in Deadwood, South Dakota. I accompanied Premier Gary Doer and Deputy Minister for Canada-U.S. relations, Diane Gray. During the two day event I spoke with staff to the governors for the Western states who were in attendance on issues of concern to Manitoba (US farm bill and country of origin labeling, WHTI, etc.)

In July 2007, I represented the province of Manitoba at the annual meeting of the Midwestern Legislators' Forum in Pierre, South Dakota. I gave a presentation on the WHTI and why it is problematic for Canada-U.S. relations and how it will impact the border communities in the Midwest. I encouraged the elected officials from Minnesota, North Dakota and South Dakota who were in attendance to file a formal comment to the Federal Register Notice of Proposed Rulemaking notice regarding implementation of WHTI at the land and sea borders. The group chose to do so and filed a comment in late August 2007.

In September and October 2007 I also met with agriculture and foreign trade policy staff to members of Congress who serve on the Agriculture committees in the House and Senate. I also met with Ag staffers to Sen. Coleman, Sen. Klobuchar and Rep. Peterson to express Manitoba's opposition to mandatory Country of Origin Labelling. As part of these efforts I held strategy meetings with lobbyists for the Manitoba Pork Producers' Council.

I have represented the province of Manitoba at various think tank for a and conferences in the Washington area over the last six months on topics related to border issues, immigration, trade, agriculture and Canada-U.S. relations overall. At all of these events (other than the Midwestern Legislators' Forum described above) I was an observer only and did not deliver speeches or comments or disseminate any material. (Events have included the Canadian American Border Trade Alliance Meetings, Women in Government Relations seminars and speeches, Woodrow Wilson Center events on Canada-U.S Relations, the Hudson Institute programs on Canada-U.S. relations, CATO Institute Homeland Security Roundtable discussions, Heritage Foundation homeland security fora, Center for Strategic and International Studies fora, Agribusiness Club of Washington, and the Washington International Trade Association.)

4 A STRONG, DYNAMIC INDUSTRY

- Western Canada's hog processing industry is experiencing unprecedented growth. The new OlyWest processing facility in Winnipeg, with an annual capacity of 2.25 million animals, is planned to be built in 2008.
- Maple Leaf, Canada's leading pork processor, recently announced it is consolidating operations in Manitoba and expanding its Brandon, Manitoba plant to double-shift processing to meet growing demand from international markets.

5 PROFITABLE PARTNERSHIPS

- Canadian-born weanlings finished on U.S.-produced corn and soybeans give U.S. farmers more export opportunities in high-profit markets like Japan.
- It's a win: win situation - U.S. producers tap into a reliable, cost-effective source of pigs to be finished on plentiful U.S. feed supplies, while Manitoba builds a stable market for its quality weanlings and feeder pigs.
